

MARTINO CORTESE

BOARD MEMBER

With a degree in Economics and an MBA from the IE Business School in Madrid, Martino Cortese is passionate about social innovation, firmly convinced of the fundamental role that organisations play in modern society, and therefore of the responsibilities that each stakeholder has towards building and promoting a more inclusive, egalitarian and sustainable world for future generations.

Already a member of Amplifon's Board of Directors, he provides the Foundation with a "purpose-driven" mentality, in addition to his experience in social entrepreneurship.